

PEANUT ALLERGIES

Katy ISD does not have a Peanut Free Campus in the district. However, guidelines have been developed and resources are available to protect these students from exposure to peanut products.

Students that have peanut allergies should contact the school nurse so an allergy action plan can be developed and accommodations can be made on the campus.

For additional information visit www.foodallergy.org