

Academic Integrity

To promote a climate of intellectual growth and fairness, we will act with integrity throughout the learning process. Academic integrity is neither giving nor receiving unauthorized aid as defined by the instructor's expectations for honest and acceptable work.

