Katy ISD presents two days of professional learning opportunities focused on meeting the social-emotional, cultural, and holistic needs of all learners.

Wednesday, July 17 – Search Institute
Finding the Fluoride: Understanding How and Why Developmental Relationships are the Active Ingredient in Interventions That Work

Thursday, July 18 – Relationships Rooted in Kindness

Sessions
- Culturally Relevant Pedagogy to Close the Achievement Gap
- Looking Through the Trauma Lens
- Meeting the Mental Health/Emotional Needs of All Students
- SEL Strategies in the Classroom
- Happy to Learn: Mental States that Promote Student Success
- Don’t Forget the Relationships
- Preventing Compassion Fatigue and Vicarious Trauma
- Stepping Back, and Other Strategies for Emotionally Healthy Leadership
- Trauma-Informed Schools
- Mirror, Mirror, on the Wall.....Who is that Looking Back at Me?
- Character Counts
- Cultural Competence for Educators
- Engaging Families of English Learners in the School Culture

Register in Eduphoria Workshop