Ms. Nguyen holds a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies and Computer Information Systems degree from the University of Hayward, California. She also has an Associate Degree in nursing from the College of San Mateo in California. And received her teaching certification through an alternative certification program.

By professional training and education, Ms. Nguyen is a registered nurse. But she found that education was an integral part of helping people recover. She realized her purpose in life was to teach because it fed her servicing heart and her need to help others. Ms. Nguyen teaches 10th, 11th and 12th grade students in the areas of Principles of Health Science, Health Science Technology and Clinical Rotations.

As a teacher, she creates an environment where curiosity is cultivated, learning is collaborative, and students develop skills to be successful in every endeavor. Her philosophy is one of adaptability and emphasizes the importance of a moral compass.

You will see her often serving students outside the classroom. Bringing the Katy Students Run program to Taylor High School created another platform for her to mentor and teach the necessary skills to be successful in life.
