

— College Advising —

NEWSLETTER

In the month of April, you have likely completed college applications, submitted the financial aid application, and received acceptance letters. It is now time to shift focus towards understanding the financial cost of each college.

FINANCIAL AID AWARD LETTERS

Award letters, also known as financial aid offers, will highlight how much aid you will be provided if you attend that college.

LEARN MORE

DECISION DAY

May 1st is an important milestone in the college admission process, which serves as a soft deadline for students to finalize their college decision.