

OVERVIEW

The Navy Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (NJROTC) program that emphasizes citizenship and leadership development. Students learn about the maritime heritage, the significance of sea power, and naval topics such as the fundamentals of naval operations, seamanship, and meteorology. Students develop self-discipline, self-confidence, and leadership skills to help them successfully meet life's challenges. The NJROTC curriculum and instructional activities are designed to develop a student's leadership, regardless of their career path or goal.
