FCC Keep Americans Connected Pledge:

- On March 13, 2020, the Federal Communications Commission \(FCC\) launched the “Keep Americans Connected Pledge.” Ajit Pai, FCC Chairman, released a press release emphasizing the importance of keeping Americans connected as the country experiences serious disruptions caused by the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. Most service providers pledged for the next 60 days to:
 - a. not terminate service to any residential or small business customers because of their inability to pay their bills due to the disruptions caused by the coronavirus pandemic;
 - b. waive any late fees that any residential or small business customers incur because of their economic circumstances related to the coronavirus pandemic; and
 - c. open its Wi-Fi hotspots to any American who needs them.
- d. Several major service providers have already taken the pledge. Please check with your service provider for their policies and services.
